Nepal's Pharma, Medical & Healthcare Landscape

Nepal's pharma, medical and healthcare market is supported by a population of around 30 million, more than 11,000 registered health facilities and 35,000+ registered health workers. Healthcare expenditure is around 5.4% of GDP, while pharmaceuticals and medical goods account for a significant share of healthcare spending. Nepal has a growing domestic pharmaceutical manufacturing base, but remains substantially dependent on imports, with India being a major source of medicines, APIs and healthcare products. Key growth areas include pharmaceuticals, medical devices, diagnostics, hospital equipment, surgical products, oncology, cardiology, diabetes care and laboratory technologies.

For international suppliers, Nepal offers opportunities through its private hospitals, government healthcare institutions, medical colleges, diagnostic centres, pharmaceutical importers and distributors. Kathmandu is the primary commercial and healthcare hub, supported by important centres such as Pokhara, Bharatpur, Biratnagar, Birgunj, Butwal and Nepalgunj. With continued focus on Universal Health Coverage, healthcare infrastructure, medicine availability and health financing, Nepal presents a relevant B2B market for Indian and international pharma, medical-device and healthcare companies seeking distributors and institutional buyers.
